Re: Call for the immediate release and dropping of the charges against human rights defender Ales Bialiatski and discontinuation of harassment and degrading treatment against him whilst in prison

Mr. President,
Mr. Prosecutor General,

We, the undersigned members and partners of the Human Rights House Network, are deeply concerned about the continued detention of Ales Bialiatski and the significant deterioration of his detention conditions. Ales Bialiatski is the head of the Human Rights Centre "Viasna" in Belarus, Vice-president of the International Federation for Human Rights (FIDH) and is one of the founders of the Belarusian Human Rights House in Vilnius (Lithuania).

According to the information received from our partners, Ales Bialiatski's rights to receive visitors and food parcels have been severely restricted.

The consequence of these and other measures taken against him during his imprisonment is a serious deterioration in Ales Bialiatski's health.

We would like to note that this latest deterioration of detention conditions of Ales Bialiatski took place just after he turned 50 years old. He received greetings and congratulations from human rights defenders all over the world, as well as from the international community, including European Union Commissioner for Enlargement and European Neighbourhood Policy Štefan Füle, all calling for his immediate release.

We consider the aforementioned confinement measures as additional retribution against Ales Bialiatski due to his legitimate human rights work. We also see a link between the international attention he received for his birthday and these measures.

The authorities of Belarus have the responsibility, in accordance with international law, including articles 6 and 10 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, to ensure that nobody in custody is subject to deterioration of his or her health. We hold the authorities of Belarus responsible for the deterioration of the health situation of Ales Bialiatski whilst he is in detention.

We call upon the Belarusian authorities to:

- Immediately release Ales Bialiatski, drop all charges against him and fully rehabilitate him;

- Pending the release provide Ales Bialiatski access to all medical support he needs and secure that the prison conditions do not impact his health;
- Ensure that Ales Bialiatski has full rights to receive visits and private correspondence.

The detention of Ales Bialiatski is the consequence of the restrictions to the rights of freedom of association and expression imposed in Belarus. As many NGOs in Belarus, "Viasna" was repeatedly denied its registration, a refusal qualified as unfounded by the United Nations Human Rights Committee. Therefore, Ales Bialiastki was forced to develop his human rights activities underground. He was not allowed to associate with others and express his opinions freely.

We believe that Belarusian authorities have to take all necessary measures to allow human rights defenders to work freely and with no abusive restrictions, including by providing registration to human rights organisations and to stop using the registration of NGOs as a tool to repress critical voices, as stated in the Declaration on Human Rights Defenders.¹
