

HUMAN RIGHTS HOUSE FOUNDATION

Would you like to work with and for human rights defenders in a growing international network?

The Human Rights House Foundation (HRHF) was established in 1989 and is based in Oslo with an office in Geneva. HRHF is the secretariat of the international Human Rights House Network (HRHN) established in 1994. HRHF has altogether 12 employees and is expanding. HRHN unites 87 human rights NGOs joining forces in 18 independent Human Right Houses in 13 countries in four regions.

HRHN's aim is to protect, empower, and support human rights organizations locally and unite them in an international network of Human Rights Houses. HRHN's main objective are to facilitate the establishment of sustainable human rights institutions and network, to empower human rights defenders and their work for greater impact on the human rights agenda at home, to generate political support for human rights defenders and NGOs and to promote and protect the freedoms of assembly, association and expression.

Media Advisor

For a new established position, we are now looking for a Media Advisor (MA) to our offices in central Oslo.

The Media Advisor will lead and be in charge of the organization's Public Relation function. The position will also be in charge of developing and managing HRHF's key media communications and develop good relations and networks. Furthermore, MA will develop information and editorial strategies for the organization.

Main Responsibilities:

- Be in regular communication with media in Norway, internationally and in the countries we have partners on human rights trends, campaigns and awareness raising work.
- Strategically and operational responsibility for the organizations PR-function.
- Develop the relations and cooperation with key media institutions in Norway and abroad.
- Editorial responsibility for the organizations publications.
- Drafting op-eds and opinion articles and chronicles when relevant in coordination with HRHF staff.
- Produce and distribute regular newsletter.
- Create and coordinate social media events and campaigns with HRHN partners and members when relevant.
- Management responsibility for and cooperation with the organization's Information Officer.

Qualifications:

- Higher relevant education.
- Broad relevant experience with transfer value. Preferably from media, information or journalism.
- Strong interest and knowledge about human rights and international affairs.
- Very good written and verbal presentation skills, Norwegian and English required, Russian knowledge an asset.
- Enjoy working both independently and in teams, including with local partners.
- Be positive, flexible, tolerant, quick and efficient.

We can offer:

- Our Media Advisor will be a strong contributor of making our work visible and available for our partners, members and the society at large.
- Central position in a transnational organization with good opportunities to grow both personally and professionally.
- Be a part of a large international network, which works for fundamental human rights.
- Take an active role in the work to professionalize a well-managed organization with a strong reputation globally further.

For more information about the position, please contact Ørjan Gamst, 957 29 725 at Reflecto Search & Selection. To apply for this position, please send an e-mail to: orjan@reflecto.no, with your CV and application as soon as possible and latest by 30th of May.