

Project cycle: 2020 House-to-House Fund

In 2020, Human Rights House Foundation's House-to-House \(H2H\) fund collaborative projects of the Network organisations from nine countries. Examples of projects included training sessions for young women leaders in Azerbaijan, assistance to human rights defenders from Belarus, and an international human rights school for young activists.

9

Projects supported

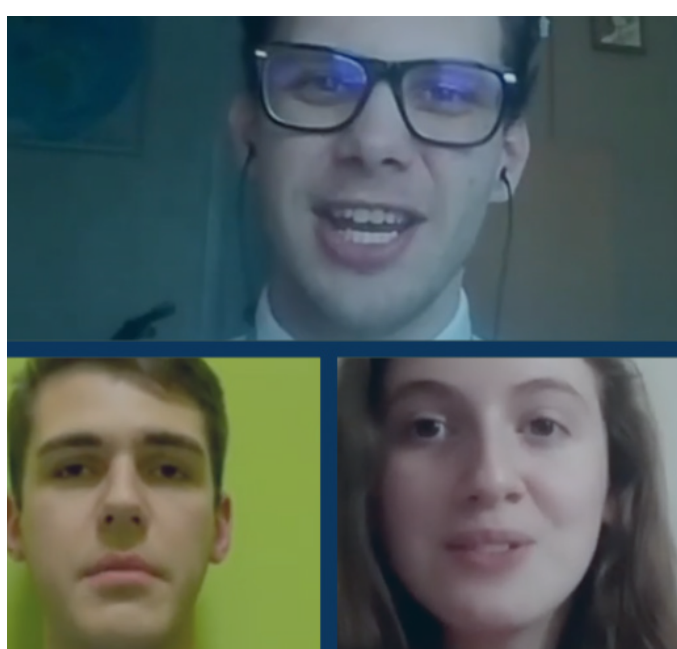

18

CSOs received funding

9

Countries represented

Highlighted project

International Human Rights School for Young Activists

150+ young activists from across Eastern Europe and the Caucasus participated in over 100 hours of online training in a new school for young human rights defenders launched by six Human Rights Houses in 2020.

Read more.

About House-to-House

Each year, Human Rights House Foundation's House-to-House Fund supports various human rights projects organised collaboratively between two or more Human Rights Houses.

Established in 2017, the fund embodies the solidarity and collaborative nature at the heart of the Human Rights House concept. It helps to strengthen and connect Human Rights Houses, encourages knowledge and competency sharing, increases capabilities and capacities, and ultimately enhances the impact on human rights in local communities.

Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs

H2H is implemented thanks to the financial support of the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Read more here.