

Project cycle: 2022 House-to-House Fund

In 2022, Human Rights House Foundation's House-to-House \(H2H\) fund supported projects with various human rights focuses, including protection of human rights defenders in Georgia, publishing letters from Belarusian political prisoners, and children's access to justice during war in the context of the full-scale Russian invasion of Ukraine.

8

Projects supported

19

CSOs received funding

8

Countries represented

Highlighted project

Letters from Lukashenko's Prisoners

In 2021 and 2022, "Letters from Lukashenko's Prisoners" aimed to provide unjustly detained individuals - Belarusian political prisoners' voices - by collecting, translating, and publishing their letters. This campaign was first organised in 2021 as a collaborative project by Belarus Free Theatre, Index on Censorship, Human Rights House Foundation, and Politizek.me.

Read more.

About House-to-House

Each year, Human Rights House Foundation's House-to-House Fund supports various human rights projects organised collaboratively between two or more Human Rights Houses.

Established in 2017, the fund embodies the solidarity and collaborative nature at the heart of the Human Rights House concept. It helps to strengthen and connect Human Rights Houses, encourages knowledge and competency sharing, increases capabilities and capacities, and ultimately enhances the impact on human rights in local communities.

Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs

H2H is implemented thanks to the financial support of the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Read more here.